

Substance Use Warmline: Free clinical consultation on managing substance use in primary care

6 am – 5 pm PST, Monday – Friday
1.855.300.3595 or submit cases online at nccc.ucsf.edu

The Clinician Consultation Center is pleased to offer confidential telephone consultation focusing on substance use evaluation and management for primary care clinicians nationally.

With special expertise in pharmacotherapy options for opioid use, our addiction medicine-certified physicians, clinical pharmacists, and nurses provide advice based on Federal treatment guidelines, up-to-date evidence, and clinical best practices.

Learn more at <http://nccc.ucsf.edu/clinician-consultation/substance-use-management/>

This project is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) under grant number U10HA30039-01-00 (AIDS Education and Training Centers National Clinician Consultation Center) in partnership with the HRSA Bureau of Primary Health Care (BPHC) awarded to the University of California, San Francisco.

CLINICIAN CONSULTATION CENTER
Translating science into care

Substance Use Warmline

Peer-to-Peer Consultation and Decision Support

(855) 300-3595 or submit cases online at nccc.ucsf.edu

Our consultants can help:

- Support primary care providers in managing complex patients with addiction, chronic pain, and behavioral health issues
- Improve the safety of medication regimens to help decrease risk of harm, including overdose
- Enhance the treatment, care and support for people living with or at risk for HIV and viral hepatitis
- Discuss useful care and communication strategies for clinicians regarding substance use, addiction and chronic pain
- Develop comprehensive treatment plans for special circumstances including pregnancy